Calculation variations:

Uzavřená kalkulace (TOP) – in this type of calculation the service costs are not included in the account statement.Polootevřená kalkulace – service costs are included in the account statement based on actual costs (VARIO), or directly billed to the client (START)

For more information of calculation variations see the Business Terms and Conditions of the Operating Lease.

Service typ - O = open, U = closed

* The amount of the monthly operational leasing installment according to the relevant financing parameter.

Insurance variants:

Insurance with a price guarantee is arranged for a fixed price of coverage for the duration of the operative leasing arrangement for the vehicle.Insurance without a price guarantee is arranged with a variable price of coverage, which is continuously adjusted depending on changes in the insurance premium set for the particular type of coverage by the insurer. The Company is entitled during the operative leasing arrangement for the vehicle to change (increase/decrease) the price for which the agreed coverage is provided to the Client.

All types of insurance coverage are calculated for the entire duration of financing (unless stated otherwise), based on the valid insurance rates at the time, without potential changes in insurance rates during the effectiveness of the insurance policy taken into consideration for insurance coverage without a guarantee of the insurance premium amount.

MULTI-OFFER - OPERATIONAL LEASING ŠBS Akční Superb se servisem

Multi-offer No.: 1865068

Important information:

A person interested in the financial product in question must be able to identify a specific offer if such a person wants to refer to its content in future, or to enter into a financial service contract based on this offer. For this purpose, the person interested in the product can fill in/provide his or her first name and surname to the dealer in order to be identified through these data (together with e.g. the date of creating the offer or another additional data). The interested person is, however, not obliged to provide his or her first name and surname to the dealer and in such a case he or she will identify the specific offer in another way, e.g. by presenting a copy of the offer or providing the offer number.

For the purpose of providing more accurate conditions of the financial services by the dealer, a person interested in the financial product may provide his or her birth number to the dealer, on the basis of which a no-claim bonus will be verified via the Czech Insurers' Bureau (CIB). The interested person is not obliged to provide his or her birth number to the dealer, however, if such person does so, he or she provides to the dealer and ŠkoFIN s.r.o. a consent with processing of this birth number and its provision to CIB for the purposes of verification of no-claim bonus.

If the interested natural person provides his or her personal data (in particular first name and surname or birth number) to the dealer, the dealer and ŠkoFIN s.r.o. may process the personal data thus provided for the purpose of matching the offer with the specific interested person, and for verification of no-claim bonus via CIB, no longer than 1 month (if no contract with the interested person is concluded).

Detailed information on how ŠkoFIN s.r.o. processes personal data can be found on the webpage www.vwfs.cz/privacy.
